

Make your move.

ROYAL IS A GREAT PLACE TO WORK!

RHC holds high standards for its employees - we look for a "passion for excellence" which is what our clients expect from an MSO. We offer competitive salaries and a great benefits package including paid vacation, medical/dental/life/short term disability and 401(K) Profit Sharing.

Royal Health Care is an equal opportunity employer committed to a diverse workforce. Our employees are committed to providing top-notch service to our customers and partners and maintain the highest standards of confidentiality and professionalism.

Our current available positions include:

Marketing Representative (New York City)

- Marketing Representative (New York City) - Will be responsible for identifying, educating, and enrolling individuals and families into a Managed Care Plan, as well as participating in community outreach efforts. One to two years' sales or customer relation's experience and a high school diploma or GED required.